SCCCI 110th Anniversary Golf Tournament –
Fostering Stronger Ties amongst Members through a Meaningful Cause

On May 13 2016, the Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce (SCCCI) organised the “SCCCI 110th Anniversary Golf Tournament” held at the Singapore Jurong Country Club. Emeritus Senior Minister Mr Goh Chok Tong graced the event as Guest of Honour.

A total of 36 teams competed in the tournament, of which, 18 teams were formed by the Chamber’s Trade Association members competing for the grand “SCCCI Cup”. This was to facilitate more interaction and foster collaboration amongst the Trade Associations. The championship was eventually won by Singapore Jewellers Association.

As the SCCCI celebrates its 110th Anniversary, its mission to promote the community services in Singapore and helping those in need of assistance was not forgotten. With the generosity of philanthropic members and friends of the SCCCI, a total of $150,000 was also raised in support of the President’s Challenge through the Golf Tournament.

SCCCI President Thomas Chua said: “The Chamber has been actively engaging our members through various activities, especially our Trade Association members whom we have been working closely with. This friendly tournament seeks to bring our members together, promoting cooperation and team spirit and fostering stronger ties amongst them in a relaxed atmosphere. We are also heartened by the overwhelming response of our members towards the support of the meaningful cause behind the tournament.”
