MEDIA ADVISORY:

Thomas Chua Kee Seng Re-elected as SCCC I President of its 58th Council

Following the conclusion of the SCCC I's 58th Council Elections on January 7 2015, we are pleased to announce that SCCC I President Thomas Chua Kee Seng has been re-elected to head the Chamber as President for another 2-year term.

The number of members of the Standing Committee has been increased from 27 to 29. For the first time, the number of Vice-Chairmen under the Trade Association and Membership Affairs Committee has been increased from two to three. This expansion will fortify the plans to further deepen the engagement with corporate members and trade association members, as well as to provide additional resources in support of the follow-up work arising from the series of dialogues arranged with its 153 Trade Associations. There will also be an additional Vice-Chairman position under the International Affairs Committee, in view of the stepping up of initiatives in the coming two years to encourage members to explore international markets and strengthen the effort of engaging China.

Please refer to the attached document for the complete name list of the Standing Committee members of SCCC I's incoming 58th Council.

All new office-bearers will be sworn in at the Installation Ceremony of the 58th Council on March 16 2015 (Monday).
