SCCCI supports SICCI Deepavali Cares Project
donated 6,000 cup noodles to migrant workers

Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce & Industry (SCCCI) supports the Deepavali Cares Project initiated by Singapore Indian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (SICCI), donated 6,000 cup noodles in conjunction with Deepavali to share the warmth and joy of the festival with the migrant workers in the Community Isolation Facility at Kranji. This project was supported by NEXUS, MINDEF.

Mr Thomas Pek, SCCCI General Affairs Committee Chairman handed over the donated cup noodles to SICCI Chairman Dr T. Chandroo on 2 November 2021.

SCCCI President Roland Ng said, "Giving back to society is one of the four key essences of SCCCI Chinese Business Culture. By supporting SICCI's donation effort during this festive season, it shows SCCCI's gesture of appreciation and blessing to the migrant workers. Apart from demonstrating the SCCCI determination in giving back to all walks of life, it enhanced social cohesion among different communities to forge a more inclusive and harmonious society."

About Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce & Industry

Established in 1906, the Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce & Industry (SCCCI) is an internationally renowned business organisation and the apex body of the Chinese business community in Singapore. It is the founder of the biennial World Chinese Entrepreneurs Convention, a global business convention. It plays a key and pro-active role in representing the interests of the local business community.

The SCCCI has a membership network comprising 5,000 corporate members and has more than 160 trade association members, representing over 40,000 companies including large financial and business organisations, multinational corporations, government-linked companies, and small and medium enterprises from a wide spectrum of trades and industries. These members together provide vast resources and opportunities which enable the SCCCI to develop an influential global Chinese business network for business, education, culture and community development. In return, they share a strong sense of pride and identity together and benefit immensely from the SCCCI's membership services, facilities and activities.
